

Amrop NESS

Amrop increases its European growth with new office in France.

Paris / Brussels, 21/ 03/ 2022:

The Amrop Partnership welcomes NESS – New Executive Search Solutions (now Amrop NESS) to its global partnership of Executive Search and Leadership Advisory firms.

Established in 2003 in Paris, the company has a successful track record working on senior-level appointments in various sectors and in particular Real Estate, Financial Services, Digital start-ups and Investment Funds

Founded by Manuel Barthe, the team of four partners represents a rich alliance of focused executive recruiting expertise, Interim executive management, and business backgrounds. Given the well-established nature of both businesses as well as their shared values, Amrop is looking forward to having a strong presence in the French market.

Annika Farin, Amrop Chairperson: “We welcome the French team to the Amrop family. Understanding context, demands local market insight and it has been a high priority for us to be in the French market in order to strengthen both the global share of knowledge of best practices as well as to serve clients in this demographic”.

From Amrop NESS: “One of the main factors motivating the aspiration of joining a network setup is the globalisation we are all being confronted with. The opportunities and potential for growth are undeniable and we as a team are very pleased to be part of the Amrop network not only because of their impressive track record but also their ethical foundations of how they conduct business, is firmly in line with our objectives and ambitions and we look forward to productive alignment”.
